The Days of Tight Belts Are Over Cling-Surface

"CLING-SURFACE" IS A BELT filler, which produces a clean, clinging surface on the belt after it has penetrated the belt, and it is a belt preservative, making and keeping the leather, cotton or rope flexible and elastic, vastly increasing its life. It also acts perfectly on rubber belts. One-third more power is transmitted by its use, or in other words, a belt two-thirds as large will transmit the power of "Cling-Surface" is used.

Kukekakaui, a native woman, and Kui, a native man, have brought suit in the Circuit Court against J. A. Magoon and J. O. Carter, W. F. Allen, S. M. Damon, W. O. Smith and A. W. Carter, trustees under the will of B. P. Bishop, deceased, to declare a deed to be a mortgage and to cancel a mortgage. The plaintiffs are residents of Waiawa, Ewa, Oahu, and both are between 70 and 80 years of age and were so when the execution of the transaction took place which they are now endeavoring to annul. The native man says he is the owner in fee simple of those certain pieces of land situated at Kuliawaho, in Waiawa, containing an area of 54-100 of an acre; another piece containing one acre and 5.85 square chains; another containing 144-100 acres and a fourth containing 445-1,000 of an acre.

Before April 26, 1891, the plaintiffs allege that they requested J. A. Magoon to raise money for them, and that on the above date they executed and delivered a mortgage for $400 payable in two years from the date at 8 per cent per annum interest, on the first two pieces of land, to the then trustees under the will of Bernice Bishop. They attach a copy of the same, "but to the original whereof or a certified copy thereof your orators beg leave at the hearing herein for greater certainty to refer."

On August 29, 1891, the plaintiffs claim to have deposited with J. A. Magoon $200 as a part of the principal of the mortgage and paid $64 as interest for two years. On or before June, 1894, Magoon notified the plaintiffs to come to him, and on June 1 they did so, and "he told your orators that their said mortgage is up, and he would pay the balance of your orators' mortgage and that your orators should refund his money; so your orators executed and delivered an instrument to this respondent J. A. Magoon on the 1st day of June, 1894, believing it to be a security to the said respondent J. A. Magoon for the money that he should have advanced to satisfy the said mortgage and only on the lands secured by the said mortgage; but in fact an absolute deed conveying all the property mentioned in said instrument to the respondent Magoon in fee simple, reserving to your orators or the survivor of them the right to live in Apana 2 of Royal Patent 210, and to occupy the building thereon, rent free, and the said respondent J. A. Magoon to pay to your orators or to the survivor of them one-half of the net rents, issues and profits that the said respondent Magoon shall derive from the said lands.

Your orators have been and are paying to the said respondent J. A. Magoon several sums of money for the purpose of paying said mortgage to the said respondent Magoon. That the value of all the property mentioned is about $2,000, and that the consideration mentioned was grossly inadequate and disproportionate to the value of said property to such an extent as to render said transaction unconscionable and fraudulent on the part of the said respondent J. A. Magoon."

The plaintiffs further declare that the mortgage to the Bishop Estate trustees has never been cancelled on records and is still an incumbrance on the property. The two old people say they are of weak mind and did not know the result of the said transaction, and that respondent Magoon took advantage of the orators in this transaction. They had full confidence in Magoon before they were informed of the true meaning of the instrument which they had signed.

ROBBERY ON THE GAELIC.

Loss of a Box of Jewels Worth Five Hundred Dollars.

Two days before the steamer Gaelic reached port on her last trip from Yokohama, a daring robbery was committed which is now puzzling the police and causing the officers of the steamship company no little concern. Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkes, the victim of the crime, reported the facts to Chief of Detectives Seymour Wednesday afternoon. Two detectives were immediately sent to unravel the mystery, but the thieves have so carefully covered up their trail that it is doubtful if the stolen plunder will ever be recovered.

Mrs. Wilkes of Graven Lodge, Leamington, England, has been making a tour of the Orient, accompanied by her maid, Nanny Holgor. She boarded the steamer at Yokohama on her homeward journey. Just before reaching San Francisco a small jewel box containing two bracelets, a gold chain and two diamond brooches was missed. Mrs. Wilkes was in the habit of keeping the gems under her pillow during the night and recalls having placed them there the evening before their disappearance. She left the room hurriedly the next morning and when she returned an hour later the box could not be found.

The officers of the vessel to whom the robbery was reported caused a search to be made. Two Japanese, a bedroom boy and a waiter, who had access to the room, were carefully questioned, but as both protested their innocence with so much sincerity they were believed. Detectives Ryan and O'Dea again questioned the suspects after the arrival of the vessel, and were also convinced of their innocence. Mrs. Wilkes leaves tonight for England satisfied that the jewels cannot be recovered. The detectives, however, will keep a watch on the pawnshops and may eventually arrest the thief should he attempt to dispose of the booty. Mrs. Wilkes estimates her loss at $500.—Chronicle.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and retold by thousands of others. He says "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents.

Parade on the Fourth.

The arrangements for the military parade of the N. G. H. on the morning of July 4th have been completed. The regiment has been called to assemble at 7:30 on Thursday morning at the drill shed, and immediately after the parade will start. The line of march will be down Hotel to Fort, down Fort to Merchant, up Merchant to Richards, up Richards to King, thence up King to the gates of the Capitol grounds, and through the grounds back to the drill shed. The regiment will be dismissed by 8:05 or 8:10 a. m. and as the 8:45 train for Pearl Harbor will be held five minutes, there will be ample time for those in the parade to catch the train.
